Lochinvar won the third race, a dash furions. The Stewards, who have been disqualitying for travalless during the meeting, refused to disquality here when there was palpable offense. The ring was hurt on the victory of Lochinvar.

Toscan 190k the opening event easily and Shorthose was an easy winner in the second. There was much comment in this race on the ride which Cochran put up on Prince Ching, who opened the favorite in the betting.

Little Betting on First Race. Toscan was the favorite in the opening event, but there was not much betting. Quite a number of the bookles laid off to-day, for there is little money in the ring and not enough to satisfy the big fellows.

James V. was the second choice. Toscand to the favority again after the can went to the front soon after the start, made all the running and won easily by three lengths from Froper, who finished strong and boat Mari-rem a head for the place. James V. had no speed at any stage, running a very bad Shorthose Good Thing To-Day.

Shorthose, who could not beat a cow in his last race, was plunged on to win the second event, his price dropping from 3 to 1 to 5 to 5 in a very few minmained a strong second choice. Cottage Maid also had backing because which were made as the mount. Cottage Maid and Prince Ching raced away head and head, followed by Toisile Heather. Crowding in Third Race.

Incense broke in front and showed the way to the turn, with Lochinvar. One Way and Workman next. They ran this way to the stretch, where One Way and Workman turned in on the inside and the four horses raced head and head to the furiong pole. There Lochinvar bore in on the others. First One Way was forced back, and then Incense was crowded back, finally Lochinvar then went on and won by a length and a half from Workman, who was three lengths in front of Incense. Hiddebrand and McCafferty both claimed foul, but the stewards did not allow it. This was a remarkable ruling.
